Essay:

My favorite book is Fallen by Lauren Kate. The reason I like this book is because it has it all: suspense, supernatural stuff, and an impossible love. It's just an amazing, beautiful story.

The book is about a girl named Lucy. She was sent to rehab after an accident that happened during the summer with this boy who was killed by these things she calls shadows. She's been seeing them ever since she was small. In this rehab, they do not allow cell phones, knives, keys, etc. This is where she meets the mysterious Daniel. She falls for him immediately. He is very mean to her and doesn't want to talk to her at all, but she doesn't know why. But she doesn't know what Daniel knows: that he is a fallen angel and the two of them have a history. Lucy has been reincarnated many times, but in all her past lives, they couldn't be together, even if they were meant to be.
